About College of Biblical Studies – Houston
We train in the truth that leads to transformation. The College of Biblical Studies (CBS) began educating Houstonians in 1979. From the first class offered, we have lived out our mission of providing a biblically based education that embraces all ethnicities and strives to equip our students with an academic and spiritual foundation needed to lead their communities, churches and families.

Vision, Core Values and Mission
By 2020, the College of Biblical Studies – Houston will become the premier Bible college in Texas focused on transforming a diverse student body to serve Christ and impact families, churches and communities, to the glory of God.

The College was developed to provide college-level training in Bible and theology for those individuals who had little or no opportunity to receive such training by conventional means (resident, full-time). As a commuter college, this training is accomplished in a unique way through our key distinctives:

- Biblical – curriculum is primarily focused on a biblical world view, based on scriptural truth, with its focus on ministry preparation and life transformation.

- Diverse – student’s study and experience the education process with fellow students from a variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds.

- Accessible – courses are available during the day, evening and Saturdays, and through alternative schedules to provide the CBS commuter college students the opportunity to “fit” their studies into their life schedules.

- Affordable – the cost of attendance is intentionally lower than other accredited private institutions and financial aid is available to assist students in meeting the financial requirements of their studies.

Six Institutional Goals
Through the College’s curricular and co-curricular experiences, CBS students demonstrate:

1. Biblical and theological knowledge, recognizing Scripture as the ultimate authority for life and godliness.

2. Skills that reflect critical-thinking and problem solving ability.

3. Attitudes and values indicative of an integrated biblical world view.

4. Sensitivity to various cultural viewpoints.

5. Skills of effective communication.

History of the College

The College of Biblical Studies-Houston (CBS), formerly Houston Bible Institute (HBI), began as a burden in the heart of the late Rev. Ernest L. Mays, the founder of HBI. He sensed that large segments of the local Christian community were functioning without trained leaders. This was especially true within the inner-city minority groups. Out of this concern, Houston Bible & Vocational Institute was incorporated in 1976. Mr. William Thomas, Jr. and Rev. Joe Wall assisted in the development of a multi-racial, interdenominational board, which began working to make the school a reality. Within a short time, a decision was made to focus on biblical and theological training because they felt that there were already adequate resources for vocational training in the area.

In the fall of 1979, the first classes of Houston Bible Institute were offered. Rev. Rodney L. Cooper was the school’s first Executive Director. From its inception, the school used the facilities of KHCB-FM, a Houston-based Christian radio network, for its classrooms, and leased administrative space nearby.

In 1983, Rev. Rod Cooper resigned to pursue a PH.D., and the Board promoted Rev. Jack Arrington, then Vice President, to President. President Arrington continued the difficult task of building the foundation and establishing credibility in the minority community.

In 1991, God called Rev. Arrington to the pastorate and Dr. William Boyd to fill his vacancy. Dr. Boyd began the process of building the superstructure on the vision of Mays and the foundation of Cooper and Arrington. He implemented a scholarship program that resulted in significant growth of the College.

Under Dr. Boyd’s leadership, in 1996 the school was certified as a college and the name was changed from Houston Bible Institute to College of Biblical Studies – Houston. In 1999 CBS achieved national accreditation through the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges (now the Association for Biblical Higher Education-ABHE).

In July 2007 God called Dr. Jay A. Quine to the presidency and Dr. Boyd became the Chancellor. Dr. Quine provided leadership for the creation of the 2008-2013 Strategic Plan that focused on the addition of a traditional bachelor’s program, a Center for Continuing Studies, and pursuit of regional accreditation.

In July 2012, God called Dr. William Blocker to the presidency to provide leadership to the College in the pursuit of becoming the premier Bible college in Texas, and furthering its impact on families, churches and communities.

In December 2013, the College of Biblical Studies – Houston was granted Member status for accreditation with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC).
