The College of Biblical Studies Named #1 Top Private University in Texas for 2022

Houston, TX – EdSmart.Org has named the College of Biblical Studies as the #1 top private university in Texas for 2022. CBS has been ranked #1 out of 66 colleges and universities. According to the EdSmart website, rankings are based on many factors including average net prices, class size, personalized instruction, class diversity, and other factors.

CBS has a 12:1 faculty to student ration, one of the lowest tuitions in Texas, and is one of only a few Bible colleges in the nation offering dual accreditation. Offerings include bachelor's degrees, associate degrees, and personal enrichment courses.

Classes are offered at one of three campus locations in Houston, Indianapolis, and Fort Wayne, as well as online. CBS will soon be offering the HyFlex Course model, an online/in-person hybrid classroom that integrates complementary face-to-face learning alongside online learning. HyFlex gives students greater flexibility in attending classes and allows online students to enjoy the classroom experience.

Dr. Bill Blocker, president of CBS sees this as a benefit for students. "This acknowledgement is a true blessing, and it highlights the level of commitment our staff and faculty have to our students. This is continued confirmation that we are here on a mission: To glorify God by educating and equipping multi-ethnic Christian leaders to impact the world for Christ."

According to the EdSmart website, data was gathered from the National Center for Education Statistics website, College Scorecard, Payscale, and school websites.
