Bio

Dr. Lisa Stewart, the wife of Patrick Stewart, Sr., serves as Dean of Women's Discipleship, Director of Student Life and Professor at the College of Biblical Studies in Houston, Texas.

Although she started college after high school, she delayed her education to be a wife and mother. After her children were away at college, she returned and finished her education earning a Bachelor of Business Management in December 2005 from LeTourneau University. In May 2008 she earned her Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA) with a Human Resource Management Specialization. In September 2009 she completed her post graduate work earning a post master certificate in Enrollment Management. Dr. Stewart completed her work for a Ph.D. in Education in spring 2015 with a specialization in Leadership in Higher Education at Capella University. As part of the program, she earned a post master professional certification from Noel Levitz in Enrollment Management in January 2010.

Prior to working at CBS, Lisa worked at LeTourneau University, Central Christian Academy, and Ben Taub General Hospital. In addition to her administrative and teaching responsibilities, she is a pastor's wife, author, and speaker.
