

Welcome to College of Biblical Studies 2021-2022 Academic Year

The Office of Student Life and Career Services is pleased to welcome back our returning students and welcome our new students to our 2021-2022 academic year. Although we are still virtual for the fall 2021 semester the Student Ministry Officers and I have planned some exciting virtual events for you! If you want to engage in real “college life”, check out the student life calendar of activities, career opportunities, and volunteer opportunities below.
